The forms you are currently completing are for the Low-Income Housing Tax Credit or Bond Program governed by the Washington State Housing Finance Commission in compliance with Section 42 and 142 of IRS Code. These programs regulate the income limits of our rental households.

All household members over the age of eighteen must sign the forms; have their income and assets third-party verified and be on the lease.

As part of determining gross annual income, we are required to document temporarily absent household members including spouses (husband or wife), roommates, and dependants. Income of any temporarily absent household member must be included in the total household income. The income of a spouse, even if he/she will not reside in the apartment must be included when determining income, unless documentation of a legal separation is provided. Income of anyone anticipated to join the household within the initial six months of occupancy such as a fiancé or roommate must also be counted.
