DISABILITY DEFINITION

Eligible HomeChoice Borrowers include persons with a disability, as defined by the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990. This includes people with physical or mental impairments that substantially limit their ability to perform basic functions that the average person can perform with little or no difficulty.

THE AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT: A BRIEF OVERVIEW

Disclaimer; This is a brief overview which cannot possibly set forth everything about the ADA and which, for purposes of brevity or as part of an effort to state legal concepts simply and in plain English, may describe the law in a manner which is not necessarily precise and/or accurate in every respect.

The ADA's protection applies primarily, but not exclusively, to "disabled" individuals. An individual is "disabled" if he or she meets at least any one of the following tests:

1. He or she has a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more of his/her major life activities;
2. He or she has a record of such an impairment
3. He or she is regarded as having such an impairment.

DOCUMENTATION OF DISABILITY

The Commission will require verification that the borrowers meets the definition of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990. Acceptable documentation includes:

1. A social security awards letter that indicates "disability"; or
2. A letter from the Borrower's doctor on letterhead indicating the Borrower meets the definition of ADA.

Please contact the Commission for other acceptable documentation.

VA disability documentation is not sufficient.

LETTER FROM MEDICAL DOCTOR ON LETTERHEAD INDICATING THE BORROWER MEETS THE DEFINITION OF ADA

The Washington State Housing Finance Commission sponsors a Homeownership Program entitled HomeChoice Downpayment Assistance Program (DPA). The HomeChoice DPA Program loans are available to low-to-moderate income people with disabilities and people who have family members with disabilities who live with them.

Eligible HomeChoice DPA borrowers include persons with a disability, as defined by the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990. This includes people with physical or mental impairments that substantially limit their ability to perform basic functions that the average person can perform with little or no difficulty. There are generally three tests:

- 1. He or she has a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more of his/her major life activities.
- 2. He or she has a record of such an impairment
- 3. He or she is regarded as having such impairment.

Your letter should state that the person meets one or more of the tests indicated above and that their disability complies with the ADA of 1990. We do not require that you disclose the exact nature of the disability as protected by privacy laws.

Should you have any questions please contact Dietrich Schmitz at 206-287-4459 or toll free at 800 767-4663 (413) or email at dietrich.schmitz@wshfc.org.

The contractor's bid must be dated within 6 months of the closing date. The contractor can be paid from an Escrow hold back once the modifications are approved by the lender. The holdback should be for the exact amount of the bid. Additional funds for Minor Accessibility Modifications can not be increased after the loan has closed.
